DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 17-25 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention of record for reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 10/24/01 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that the composition claims which are defined by a single property are not indefinite, since the Spacht case does not support the proposition that claims defining a materials in terms of a single property are indefinite per se.

It is precisely the definition of a material in terms of a single property, which does not limit the claim terminology. In other words, the disclosure is not commensurate in scope of the claim, which would include tremendously speculatively broad groups of material which when combined with EMD would provide the single property.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1741

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
